United Cerebral Palsy of Suffolk Hosts 2008 Kathleen O. Maul Memorial Down Under Golf Classic

Hauppauge, NY...United Cerebral Palsy of Suffolk (UCP), a service provider for almost 4,000 individuals with disabilities and their families, recently hosted its annual Kathleen O. Maul Memorial Down Under Scramble at the Hamlet Wind Watch in Hauppauge. It was an outstanding day for golf and a great networking opportunity for those who came out in support of UCP Suffolk. This year's event was sponsored by The Roslyn Savings Foundation, and received major support from Moritt Hock Hamroff & Horowitz LLP and RJD Construction.

Honoree for the event was Peter T. Johnson, Director of Facilities and Purchasing for Dale Carnegie & Associates, Inc. Johnson, a past chairman of the Down Under Golf Committee boasts a 17 - year relationship with UCP Suffolk.

UCP Suffolk Chief Executive Officer, Stephen H. Friedman introduced the honoree by explaining, "Peter is a friend and partner to UCP Suffolk. Over the years, he has embraced the concerns of persons with disabilities by actively promoting the employment of people with disabilities, and shows his support at numerous events. Friedman continued, "The Down Under Scramble has been a favorite outing for Peter over the years and he served us well as its committee chairman. The energy, enthusiasm and many new friends Peter has brought to our doors made him the ideal choice for the 2008 honoree."

Mr. Friedman added, "UCP is very grateful to all of this golfers and sponsors who support this event. We are especially pleased to have had Bob Tils of Moritt Hock Hamroff & Horowitz LLP as our chair this year. His friendship and continued support are key in helping us continue to provide quality programs to those we serve."

Golfers were treated to on-course hospitality, food and beverages courtesy of Outback Steakhouse and enjoyed pie donated by Briermere Farms. The voice of the Long Island Ducks and TV55 Weatherman, Dave Weiss served as MC for the post-golf awards dinner.
