The Neighborhood of Caring Breakfast, an event held every-other year, will honor individuals in our community who help support quality of life for frail older adults, those with Alzheimer's disease, and family caregivers of the elderly.

Six individuals will be honored at the 2008 Neighborhood of Caring Breakfast:

- Honorable Steve Englebright, Assemblyman, New York State Assembly
- Ms. Christine Harvey, Parish Outreach Coordinator, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish
- Ms. Kim Pestour, RN, Director, Lutheran Long Term Home Health Care Program
- George Roach, Esq., Director, Suffolk County Legal Aid Society, Senior Citizens Division
- Ms. Joanne Wachter, Director, Senior Solutions of Long Island
- Sheila White, RN, Long Term Care Specialist, ProVista Group

"Day Haven is an important part of maintaining dignity and quality of life for frail older adults and those with Alzheimer's," explains Elizabeth Geary, Director of Day Haven. She adds, "We don't do it alone, however. We rely on other experts in the field of aging to help us help elders and families receive comprehensive, high quality services. This year's honorees provide exemplary service to the Long Island community. We are delighted to recognize them in this way."

Sponsorship opportunities are available for the Neighborhood of Caring Breakfast. Tickets are $50.00 per person. For information about the breakfast, becoming a sponsor to learn more about Day Haven, contact Julie Wexler, (631) 585-2020, ext 260.
