On Course Hospitality Sponsored by

Honoree
Marian Conway

Marian Conway joined The Roslyn Savings Foundation in 2002 after diverse experiences at both large corporations and small businesses in the for-profit arena. It was clear that she had found her niche as a community funder, and she became the foundation's Executive Director in 2005.

Marian brings intelligence, creativity, wit and compassion to her role, listening to Long Island's needs with a sensitive ear. Whenever possible, she commits not just the financial resources of The Roslyn Savings Foundation but her personal leadership and guidance as well.

Currently a doctoral candidate in Public Policy – Non-Profit Management, Marian already holds both a Bachelors and Masters degree. She is president of Literacy Nassau, president of the Alumni Federated Board of Empire State College, and sits on numerous other not-for-profit boards.

Marian and her husband have two married daughters and divide their time between homes in Lindenhurst and Upstate New York.
