Marian Conway of Roslyn Savings Foundation Honored by UCP At 2009 Kathleen O. Maul Memorial Down Under Scramble

Hauppauge, NY...United Cerebral Palsy of Suffolk (UCP), a service provider for almost 4,000 individuals with disabilities and their families, recently hosted its annual Kathleen O. Maul Memorial Down Under Scramble at the Hamlet Wind Watch in Hauppauge. It was a perfect day for golf and a fabulous networking opportunity for those who joined together to support UCP Suffolk and recognize honoree, Marian Conway of the Roslyn Savings Foundation, who returned as Presenting Sponsor. Moritt Hock Hamroff & Horowitz LLP and RJD Construction also provided major support for the event. Almost $100,000 was raised to enhance the daily and residential programs offered by UCP Suffolk.

UCP Suffolk President/CEO, Stephen H. Friedman, thanked Marian, "For her kindness, long-time friendship and years of support. Over the years," he continued, "Marian has embraced the concerns of persons with disabilities by showing her support at numerous events, and serving on several committees. The energy, enthusiasm and opportunities Marian has introduced to us make her the ideal choice for 2009 honoree."

Friedman added, "UCP is very grateful to all of the golfers and sponsors who support this event. We are especially pleased to have had Bob Tils of Moritt Hock Hamroff & Horowitz as our returning chair this year. His friendship and continued support are key in helping create life without limits for people with disabilities."

Golfers were treated to on-course hospitality, food and beverages courtesy of Outback Steakhouse and enjoyed pies donated by Briermere Farms. The voice of the Long Island Ducks and TV55 Weatherman, Dave Weiss served as MC for the post-golf awards dinner.
