United Cerebral Palsy of Suffolk Appoints Vice President, Program Services

Hauppauge, NY...United Cerebral Palsy Association of Suffolk's (UCP Suffolk) President/CEO Stephen H. Friedman is pleased to announce the appointment of Eileen McDonald Egan as Vice President, Program Services. Ms. Egan will oversee Adult Day Services, the Community Program Center (CPC), Educational and Residential Services.

"I am confident Ms. Egan's extensive background and experience developing and managing OMRDD, State Education Department and Department of Health programs coupled with her leadership qualities make her an excellent addition to our executive team. Her talents will greatly enhance the unparalleled service currently provided by UCP Suffolk," said Friedman.

Before joining UCP Suffolk, Egan was the Vice President, Special Needs at Terence Cardinal Cook Health Center in New York City. Previously, she held the positions of Assistant Executive Director at the Shield Institute, Director of Community Residences and Program Development and Special Projects at Nassau AHRC and Director, Residential Services at new England Villages in Pembroke Massachusetts.

Egan joins the organization with over twenty-five years experience in the field of special education, developmental disabilities, and advocacy. She holds a Master of Public Health degree from Yale University's School of Medicine, a Masters of Arts degree from State University of New York at Stony Brook and is a graduate of Southern Connecticut State University.

About United Cerebral Palsy: UCP Suffolk, based in Hauppauge, NY, provides services to 4,000 children and adults with disabilities annually and 65% of those served are individuals with a disability other than cerebral palsy. Job training and placement, physical therapy, individual and family support, early intervention, preschool, school age, adult day and residential programs are available. UCP also operates comprehensive Health Center offering medical and rehabilitative services for people with developmental disabilities not limited to CP. www.ucp-suffolk.org or call 631-232-0011.
